Mr. Jimmy Dempsey
Mr. Spencer Thwaytes
Mr. Howard Diamond
Frontier Airlines Inc.

Re: *Aircraft leased to Frontier Airlines Inc. ("Frontier") that are serviced by Carlyle Aviation Management Limited ("CAML"), and subject to the Leases (each a "Lease") referred to in the attached Notices (the "Aircraft")

Dear Mr. Dempsey, Mr. Thwaytes and Mr. Diamond:

As you know, for months now, CAML, as servicer for the lessors of each Aircraft, has been negotiating with Frontier to accomplish several transactions involving the Aircraft, including, but not limited to, financing or refinancing the Aircraft, changing the Owner Trustee for the Aircraft, and selling the Aircraft to third parties (the "Transactions"). These Transactions are more fully described in the attached Notices.

These are ordinary-course transactions, and Frontier is obligated to cooperate with CAML in accomplishing the Transactions. For example, in Section 4 of the Non-Waiver and Preservation of Rights Agreement, dated October 21, 2022 (the "Non-Waiver Agreement"),<sup>1</sup> Frontier and CAML agreed "that they will continue to cooperate in good faith in all Lease Administration Activities." Lease Administration Activities include "consents, lease amendments, aircraft/lease financings, owner trustee and owner participant assignments and Aircraft sales (and related transfers, notices and acknowledgments, replacement of lessor guarantees, updated insurance certificates and matters ancillary thereto)," among other things. Similarly, Section 20.2(b) of each Lease requires Frontier to "comply with all reasonable requests of" CAML and "to cooperate in effecting any [] transfer, novation, assignment, mortgage, grant or other disposition" of the Aircraft or, in the case of the Lease of the aircraft with manufacturer's serial number 7524, Section 22.2 of the applicable Lease requires Frontier to "comply with any [] reasonable requests of" CAML in connection with the applicable assignment. Frontier also agreed to "execute any and all consents, agreements, amendments or other instruments (including any supplement or amendment to or novation of this Agreement and any confirmation of the Lessee's representations and warranties as of the date of such transfer, novation, assignment, mortgage, grant or other disposition)" related to the Aircraft or, in the case of the Lease of the aircraft with manufacturer's serial number 7524, "execute (or cause to be executed) all documents reasonably requested by [CAML] to effect, perfect, record or implement any such assignment".

Unfortunately, your actions in connection with the requests that CAML has made of Frontier to effectuate the Transactions have breached your obligations under the Non-Waiver Agreement and each Lease. You continue to act unreasonably in the negotiation process by, among other things, insisting on the inclusion of certain terms in the transaction documents that are both inappropriate and inconsistent with industry-wide practice. For example, you have asked the applicable lessor and security trustee to state in the notice of security assignment that the Lease provides you certain rights that are not stated in the Lease, including that the lessor and security trustee agree to subordinate any lien, encumbrance, and collection rights of the security trustee to the judgment creditor rights of lessee.

Your ongoing breaches of the Non-Waiver Agreement and/or Lease Agreement are putting the Transactions at risk. If the Transactions are not able to close, numerous parties, including Carlyle (as that term is defined in the Non-Waiver Agreement), the Lessors under the Leases and funds managed by CAML, among others, are likely to incur millions of dollars in damages. CAML hereby notifies you that Frontier will be held responsible for those losses.

Of course, we believe that these losses can be avoided entirely if Frontier complies with its obligations to act reasonably in the negotiations related to the Transactions.

All rights are reserved.

Very truly yours,
